WICHITA —Pipeline technology entrepreneur fellowship program will offer a free presentation on market validation next month at Wichita State University.

The presentation is aimed at helping entrepreneurs understand how to determine demand for a product or service as well as how to find the target market.

The presentation will be from 9:30 to 11 a.m. Feb. 9 at WSU's Devlin Hall. It is open to the public.

The presenter will be Rob Adams, an Austin, Texas, entrepreneur and venture capitalist who also is an adviser to Pipeline.

Later Adams will lead a two-hour market validation workshop that begins at 1 p.m. and costs $50.

The WSU Center for Entrepreneurship and Wichita Technology Corp. are hosting the presentation and workshop.
